Submission to Invading Sultan Stirs Tribesmen to Demand Reforms.

JERUSALEM, June 22 .- The political situation in Transjordania is regarded by observers here as rapidly moving from had to worse, and, unless the British government intervenes in time to give the country a condition of anarchy may well de Abdullah, Emir of Transjordania. menaced by the invasion of Ibn Saoud Sultan of Nejd, at the head of 10.00 well armed Wahabi tribesmen, still holds the reins of power, but he seems to have committed an unpardonable sin, in the eyes of the leaders of the tribes dwelling within his territory. for having humbled himself to Ibi Saoud by suing for peace.

A delegation from a majority of the a delegation from a majority of the tribes of Transjordania recently walted upon Emir Abdullah, remonstrated with him on his course, and submitted the following demands:

1. The immediate dismissal of all political advisers in the administration on the ground that these advisers are half agents of trains. are paid agents of foreign govern-ments, and are working only in the interests of foreigners.

2. The immediate convocation of a legislative council, with powers to go into the details of governmental affairs.

3. The immediate publication of the financial condition of the country.

Replying to the delegation, the emir said: "Regarding political advisers, I said: Regarding political advisers, I am aware of everything that is happening in Transjordania, and I am working for the best interests of my people. As regards a legislative council, I do not want my hands tied as the Syrians tied the hands of my brother Feisul, later on expelling him from Department.

VISIT TO CAMP MEADE

Weeks Is Pleased With Progress Made at Various Summer Posts.

Secretary Weeks plans to make a personal inspection of the civillan mill-tary training camp work in progress at Camp Meade, Md., at an early date.

Reports from all corps areas as to the progress made so far in the summer training camp work either for civilians, reserve officers, National Guard organizations or specialized. civilians, reserve officers, National Guard organizations or specialized reserve units for the Army, were good, the War Secretary said. War Department officials have been particularly encouraged by the fact that in practically every corps area more applications for admittance to training camps have been received than could be approved.
